POLICE HEADQUARTERS,
Thiruvananthapuram

Dated the 14th March, 2017

Executive Directive No. 04/2017

Sub:-Answers to LA Questions - Regarding

Providing prompt and correct replies to LA Interpellations is a very important duty. It can be done under the personal supervision of the Unit Head concerned. But it is not happening in that way. The following are the lacunae in the reply received from various Unit Heads:-

1. Unit Heads do not sign the replies. Most of the time the replies are signed by junior officers (SIs / CIs etc.) whose name and seal are also not affixed;
2. Replies are very sketchy, confusing and contradictory;
3. Materials for a Supplementary Note are not sent;
4. Replies are not to the point, etc.

All these deficiencies can be taken care of with a little personal intervention and personal interest of the Unit Head concerned. In no circumstances any dilution will be tolerated and the Unit Head will be personally held responsible for the deficiencies as mentioned above.
